

JUSTICES ARRESTED.

Gladling and Stryker Also Accused of Conspiracy.

Additional Charges Against McKane and His Henchmen.

Some Brooklyn Officials Will Be Taken in To-Morrow.

Other indictments have been found against John J. McKane and his henchmen in connection with the election frauds at Gravesend.

The indictments were found by the Extraordinary Grand Jury, and were presented to Justice Bartlett in the Court of Oyer and Terminer yesterday in Brooklyn.

Desires McKane, eighteen election inspectors, Charles Morris and Justices Newton and Sutherland are indicted for conspiracy.

Lawyer J. Wernberg, who is assisting in the prosecution of McKane, this morning placed warrants in the hands of Sheriff Butting for the arrest of McKane and the others.

The news was telephoned to Gravesend early this morning, and the indicted men assembled in McKane's office shortly after 11 o'clock. They appeared before the Sheriff and gave themselves up.

McKane will be notified to give additional bail for his appearance.

At noon Lawyer Wernberg placed in the hands of Sheriff Butting warrants for the arrest of Jacques S. Stryker, recently associated with the Court of Sessions, in Brooklyn, and William J. Gladling, Police Justice at Gravesend.

Both men are indicted for conspiracy with McKane, and the others at Gravesend.

The details of the indictments have not yet been made known, but it is supposed that all the accused are charged with concealing registry lists and other offenses against the election laws.

Stryker and Gladling joined the other prisoners in the Sheriff's office immediately after the warrants were issued.

While the prisoners were waiting to have their bonds made out, Chief Clerk Vailley, of District Attorney Ridgway's office, sent word to Sheriff Butting that it would be impossible for him to make out their bonds to-day.

Sheriff Butting then released the prisoners to appear to-morrow morning and give bail.

Robert Furey, W. G. Pearson and Senator James W. Birkett were on hand to furnish bail.

Frederick Wernberg announced at noon that there would be no arrests made to-day. He said that the Police Justices of Brooklyn were not to be taken in to-day.

Mr. Wernberg said that some Brooklyn officials had been indicted, but they would not be arrested until to-morrow.

RECEIVED $3 FOR HIS VOTE.

Mingle Says About Forty Others Got the Same Fee.

More sensational testimony was given before the Assembly Committee in the Brooklyn City Hall to-day in the case of S. F. Mingle, who was charged with receiving a bribe of $3 from William Hughes, Assemblyman from the Seventh District of Kings County.

Stephen Mingle, colored, occupied the stand all the morning. He said with forty other men he was paid to vote the Democratic ticket in the Fourth District of the Ninth Ward.

He said the night before election he received money from John McCabe at Democratic headquarters, Vanderbilt and St. Mark's avenues.

On election day he voted at 1030. He was told that if he voted the Democratic ticket "the boss" would make it all right.

After casting his ballot, Richard Drivers gave him a blue ticket and told him to present it at headquarters.

He presented the ticket at the Vanderbilt avenue headquarters, and with a number of other voters received an envelope with $3 inclosed.

When Lawyer Elliott, for Kneeland, asked Mingle who was meant by "the boss," he said he believed he was Daniel O'Connell, who has the contract for removing garbage from the city.

Police officers, he said, told him Drivers was employed by O'Connell.

REPUBLICANS NOW IN CHARGE.

Brooklyn's City Clerk Busy Swearing In New Office-Holders.

Joseph C. Benjamin, the new City Clerk of Brooklyn, was kept busy this morning administering the oath of office to the Republicans who succeeded the Democrats turned out yesterday.

Mayor Scherren called his Cabinet together last evening, and after outlining the policy to be pursued under his administration asked each one to take charge to-day.

Frederick W. White, the new City Works Commissioner, arrived at his office this morning with the following subordinates, who began their duties immediately after taking the oath of office:

Frank Lyman, City Commissioner, salary, $5,000; R. M. Whiting, Secretary, salary, $2,000; George W. Murphy, Assistant Secretary, salary, $1,000; August C. Tate, Registrar of Water Rates, salary, $1,000; Chief Clerk, Bureau of Water Extension, salary, $1,000; Gilbert, Superintendent of Supplies, salary, $1,000.

Dr. J. Taylor Emery, the new Health Commissioner, took office this morning. He has asked for the resignations of all his predecessor's assistants. Dr. Emery has not announced who he will appoint.

Albert G. McDonald, the new Corporation Counsel, this morning succeeded Mr. Jenks, and the following gentlemen were sworn in as his assistants:

Alfred E. Mudge, Henry Younce, Michael Furst, Howard O. Wood and F. S. Angel.

Leonard R. Welles, Mayor Scherren's Police Commissioner, yesterday appointed William Crowley as Accountant, and F. M. Seely as Property Clerk.

Police Commissioner Welles this afternoon had all the police captains in his office to give them instructions in the new administration.

His Honor, the Mayor, said Commissioner Welles, "wishes this Department to be non-partisan. His wishes should be respected and obeyed. There were no previous political activities, which has no marred the efficiency of the police force. The days of political parties are past."

LOHMANN IS STILL MISSING.

The Safe to Be Opened and Books Examined.

Rumors that His Bond Had Never Been Renewed.

Nothing had been heard up to noon today from William D. Lohmann, the missing cashier of the Brooklyn Excelsior Bank, whose strange disappearance was reported in yesterday's "Evening World."

Early this morning City Auditor Weber sent examiners F. A. and N. H. Davis over to the Excelsior Department to go over Lohmann's accounts. At the same time, E. M. Hendrickson, the maker of the old firm safe which stood in Lohmann's office, was summoned to open the combination lock. When Mr. Hendrickson arrived it was decided to do nothing until Lohmann's bondmen came and watched the proceedings.

When Lohmann was appointed, eight years ago, he was required to furnish a bond in the sum of $10,000, and a deposit of $5,000 in the Excelsior Bank, of 27 West 11th Street, New York.

It was reported to-day that his bond had been renewed, and that he was still in the city.

On Tuesday Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

Mr. Scherren called a convention of all the directors of the Excelsior Bank, and they decided to open the safe to see if Lohmann's accounts were correct.

LUDWIG'S TIMELY PURCHASE.

The Merchants' Enterprise Strike.

Messrs. Ludwig Bros., of Nos. 31, 33, 35, 37 and 39 West 11th Street, New York, have just purchased a large stock of goods from the bankrupt firm of Messrs. Ludwig Bros., of Nos. 31, 33, 35, 37 and 39 West 11th Street, New York.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

The goods are being placed on the counters at the store, and will be ready for sale in a few days.

DISSESSION IN THE COMBINE.

Faction of the Straw Board Trust Wants a New President.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—The American Straw Board Company will hold its annual session this morning at the Company's offices in the Pullman Building.

The combine has a capital stock of $1,000,000, and is practically controlled by the entire straw board output of the country.

An effort will be made to defeat the reelection of President O. C. Barker, and to put the management of the combine into the hands of new officers.

An opposition ticket has been decided upon. The leader of the opposition is R. F. Newcomb, of Chicago, Ill., at present a director.

Mr. Newcomb said that the affairs of the Company have not been prospering during the last year. "We make no charges of mismanagement," said he, "but we believe that change is needed to be beneficial to the Company."

ON TRIAL FOR FORGERY.

Cohen Charged with Signing His Brother's Name to a Check.

The trial of John Cohen for forgery was resumed before Judge Martine in Part 1 of the General Sessions this morning. He is the reputed son of a wealthy man, and is a member of the firm of Jacob Cohen & Sons, underwriters.

On Tuesday last, forgering the name of his brother, Samuel Cohen, to a check for $25 on the Chatham National Bank, he was charged with forgery.

The defendant pleaded guilty to forgery in the third degree on Jan. 24, but on Jan. 25, he was permitted to withdraw the plea and plead not guilty. He claims he is being persecuted by his family for marrying against their wishes. His attorney says he had the authority to sign his brother's name.

REFUSED THE INJUNCTION.

Brooklyn City Railroad Can Use Streets in Flatlands.

Justice William J. Gaynor, sitting in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to-day denied the application of the Brooklyn, Bergen Beach and Canarsie Railroad to enjoin John Matthews and Van Trump from using the streets in Flatlands, from granting a franchise to the Brooklyn City Railroad to use its cars on certain streets in the town.

The applicants claim that on Dec. 20, 1900, the City of Brooklyn granted a franchise for certain streets, and on Jan. 24, 1901, granted a franchise to the Brooklyn City Railroad for the same territory.

CORONER MUST INVESTIGATE.

Strange Proceedings in the Blackwell's Island Asylum.

When friends of Ida Elmanowitch, who died in the lunatic asylum on Blackwell's Island yesterday, went to claim the body this morning, they were informed that the case was one that called for investigation by the Coroner.

Keeper White, of the Coroner's office, has been notified of the woman's death.

BRANKMAN FATALLY INJURED.

REED BANK N. J., Feb. 1.—Austin Newman, a forty-year-old man, was fatally injured at Spring Lake, N. J., yesterday. He was caught in a frog while the train was moving, and was killed.

NEWARK N. J., Feb. 1.—Singer Hall, a three-story brick building on Belmont avenue, was destroyed by fire this morning. It was the property of Gottfried Krueger. There was a saloon on the ground floor and a dancing hall overhead.

FLAMES STARTED BY A CIGARETTE.

JAMAICA, L. I., Feb. 1.—John H. Hopkinson, ex-Town Commissioner of Road Improvements, who dropped dead in his bathroom at his home in South Jamaica last night from heart disease, was a wealthy retired farmer and prominent in church and charitable work. He was fifty-eight years of age, and was married and had three sons.

ELOPED WITH A FIREMAN.

PAID RICKWAX, L. I., Feb. 1.—Miss Lizzie Lapack, seventeen years old, the youngest daughter of George Lapack, eloped yesterday with William Carter, a fireman on the Long Island Railroad. Miss Lapack had been receiving attention from Carter for some time back. Her parents objected to this marriage, and she is now in the hands of the police.

CONTRACT FOR PRINTING AND LITHOGRAPHING.

The lowest bid received today by the Board of City Record for printing and lithographing for the City of New York was $10,000. The contract will be awarded to the lowest bidder.

NO LICENSE FOR Ochs.

Justice Gaynor, of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, has continued the injunction restraining the Excelsior Commissioners from granting a license to Ernest Ochs for a saloon at the corner of Delancey and Franklin streets, near the Italian Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church.

SQUELCHING A POET.

Poet—I have been sending you some of my choicest gems, but I have received no reply. I had no idea that you were absent.

Editor—You might have known that I was out of town, otherwise you would have got your stuff back by return mail.

With House-cleaning on hand.

There is nothing so handy as great labor-saver.

Great Dust Washing Powder.

Sold Everywhere.

Made only by N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., Chicago.

St. Louis, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Montreal.

ZELLA'S SUIT TO BE DROPPED.

Lawyer Abe Hummel Intimates that George Gould Settled.

Report that He Paid Mrs. Nicolaus $10,000.

That the trial of the action brought by Zella Nicolaus against George Gould to recover a check for $40,000, or its value, which she alleges under oath had been obtained from her legally, will never occur now has been settled fact.

The lawyers on both sides declared to an "Evening World" reporter this morning that the issue was practically dead, but both denied that they had any knowledge of a compromise having been reached, but they intimated that such a thing might have been settled.

Lawyer Valer J. Severance, chief clerk in the office of W. Bouck Cockran, counsel for Mr. Gould in the action, said that the details of the mysterious transaction would never be known.

GOING BACK FOR SENTENCE.

Requisition for Mrs. Gerrity, Who Is Wanted in Morristown, N. J.

Mrs. Bridget Gerrity, a tall, blue-eyed woman, about forty years old, was arraigned in the Tombs Court this morning, where an order was signed for her to be taken to Morristown, N. J. The requisition papers in the case were received yesterday.

Mrs. Gerrity escaped from the custody of the Sheriff of Morristown last October, after having been indicted on a charge of kidnapping.

It was alleged that an elderly woman, accompanied by another woman, obtained from Mrs. Gerrity a large sum of money on the night of Sept. 2, and that Mrs. Gerrity dragged the couple and stole $15 from the woman.

She was arrested, and a month later was indicted. Before the verdict was rendered, Mrs. Gerrity was taken to New York, and she has been searching for her money ever since.

MRS. WINTLE SEEKS DIVORCE.

She Once Got Damages for Improper Medical Treatment.

Mrs. Ella Marie Wintle today began suit in the Superior Court before Judge Dugro for an absolute divorce from her husband, William Henry Wintle, on the statutory grounds. Several women, names unknown, are mentioned in the complaint.

The couple were married in June, 1899. About three years ago Mrs. Wintle left her husband and went to live with another man. She was found by the police, and she was taken back to her husband.

After her recovery she brought suit against a Dr. May, of this city, who had treated her for her ailment. She was awarded $100 damages.

Mrs. Wintle, in her testimony, said she had not lived with her husband since the discovery of his alleged improper conduct.

Mrs. Mary Durant gave damaging testimony against Wintle, after which Judge Dugro took the papers and reserved decision.

SIMPSON WILL PLEAD GUILTY.

Infanture for a Widow the Cause of His Downfall.

ELIZABETH N. J., Feb. 1.—George Simpson, the thieving bank clerk of Rahway, who surrendered after a lively junket of a month in Florida, blowing in $94 of the $100 he had stolen, will be arraigned next week in the County Court of Special Sessions, and will plead guilty. He will be sentenced to State prison.

It turns out that a gay and dashing young widow of Rahway was responsible for the clerk's downfall. He was infatuated with her, and she would lead him into trouble. Dreading the consequences, he in desperation stole the Union County Bank money and fled.

The bank authorities regret his course, as he was the smartest clerk and accounted for